

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction

Local History Chapters

These chapters include focus, main idea, vocabulary, student pages, teacher pages, student activities, selected books for students and adults, special resources for teachers, pictures, maps and short history articles.

1. Prehistoric San Ramon Valley
2. Where is the San Ramon Valley?
3. Geography of the San Ramon Valley
4. Native Americans of the San Ramon Valley
5. Spanish Explorers in Our Valley
6. Rancho Times in the San Ramon Valley
7. Early American Pioneers
8. Early Schools in the Valley
9. Agriculture in the San Ramon Valley
10. Transportation in the San Ramon Valley
11. Alamo Today
12. Danville Today
13. San Ramon Today

Plays and Songs featuring Alamo, Danville, San Ramon

Passport pages

Places to visit in the San Ramon Valley for students and parents which feature local history. Pages formatted for teachers to copy.

Field Trips for Families and Classes

Acknowledgments, Bibliography, Illustrations

San Ramon Valley History

KNOWING YOUR COMMUNITY

A Local History Curriculum Project

Introduction for teachers

Here is a notebook designed to help you meet the state third grade curriculum requirement for KNOWING YOUR COMMUNITY. There are thirteen chapters which feature San Ramon Valley history, each with student and teacher pages, student activities, suggested reading, social studies assignments, plays, field trips and other helpful information.

Classroom resources suggested for your use include:

- Atlas Intermediate, Harcourt Brace
- Communities, Harcourt Brace (Signatures)
- Communities, Harcourt Brace Social Studies Activity Book
- Diamond Cover, Harcourt Brace (Signatures)
- Houghton Mifflin Literary Readers, Book 3
- Wings, Harcourt Brace

Each chapter includes suggested books for students and adults and pertinent web sites.

This project was a collaboration of the Museum of the San Ramon Valley, San Ramon Valley Unified School District, and Danville and San Ramon Public Libraries. The core committee which produced these notebooks included Gail Kamerer and Beverly Lane (co-chairs), Kathie Petrie and Matt Austin. A special thanks to Robert Alpert for his encouragement and support.

Underwriting funds came from the Danville/Sycamore Valley Rotary, San Ramon Rotary, Soroptimist International Alamo-Danville, San Ramon Valley Kiwanis and San Ramon Valley Education Foundation.